2. 4.7.2008 Heard.

The petitioner is in custody in a case under Section 307 IPC and 27 of the Arms Act. The informant is a professional Pandit/Purohit. While he was coming, some criminals emerged from a bush with fire arms and started checking his body. The informant handed over his cloth to the criminal stating that he had nothing with him and that he was a professional Pandit. While they were reading the chit of paper found in the cloth of the informant, one criminal came there and asked his companions to shoot the informant. The informant ran out of fright and was hit by a shot on his back. The petitioner was apprehended on suspicion along with others and all were put on test identification parade. The rejection order indicates that the petitioner was identified by the informant as one of the persons who were indulged in the crime as per details above, considering which the prayer is dismissed.
